ADVENTURE BIKE RIDER FESTIVAL 2022 ON SITE OFF-ROAD COURSE AND TRAIL RIDING

THE RISKS YOU TAKE.

Trail and off-road riding carries risk. Falls are inevitable. At least one person will fall off on any ride. That person may well be you. If you fall off a motorcycle you may well be hurt. If you are unlucky you can be really hurt. If you are really unlucky, you could be killed. Most falls are uneventful but with a big trail bike weighing over 200kg if your bike falls on you, despite protective gear, it could well hurt a lot.

If you do not want to take the risks inherent in trail and off-road riding, don't come out on your bike or use the off-road course. We cannot control how you react in any given situation. You choose your lines, your speed, your braking and your steering. You decide how much protective gear you wear. You decide your bike, the suitability of your tyres and only you can let your ego outstrip your talent. We can show you trails which you have access to. We are trail guides, not instructors.

In English and Welsh law which governs our contract you are knowingly taking on the inherent and clear risks of moving a motorcycle over some demanding terrain or taking the risks of riding on the road.

If it goes wrong, without negligence on our part, you simply have to take those risks. If you want us to say “fall off and we’ll pay you your losses” then don’t come out with us or use the off-road course at the event. Stay safe under your duvet and don’t take the enjoyment of trail riding because you are not prepared to take the risk.

If the pace or terrain is getting too much for you, or you are feeling nervous about any stretch, tell us. Our marshals will take your bike through the bits you cannot manage or do not want to manage. We actively encourage you to tell us if the terrain or conditions are too much for you. It makes our life a whole lot easier if we are not picking up your bike, administering first aid or attending you waiting for an ambulance.

Your riding colleagues and we will respect you rather more if you take a realistic view of your skill level. Don’t be the guy who messes up the riding for everyone by letting your ego get the better of you. We’d rather have a wait for you to arrive safely around the course rather than have to call the riding off because you are hurt or your bike is busted beyond running repair. The quicker riders accept this. This is trail riding, not enduro racing.

I understand there is a real risk of harm, injury or even death from trail riding and off-road riding and I willingly accept those risks. I further confirm that I will tell a marshal if the ride is getting too much for me or any one part of the trail or course is beyond what I think my own abilities or my bike can cope with. If I am a bit of a handy rider, I willingly accept that I might need to wait for slower riders and I don’t want anyone to get hurt. I will ride safely and not hassle slower riders or overtake them without being waved past by the rider I am overtaking.

I also confirm my motorcycle is road legal and insured for at least 3rd party cover.

I sincerely affirm that I will not let my ego outstrip my talent and I will tell my guide if I am getting out of my comfort zone.
